

Hastings SEAFOOD & WINE festival

17 & 18.9.22

Saturday 17 September

11am to 6pm on the Stade. Music until 7.30pm on the beach.

11am to 5.30pm – Kids Stuff, Stade Hall

All things arts and crafts for the little ones to enjoy, including face painting! Must be accompanied by a wristband wearing adult.

12 noon to 1pm – Nadia Moon, Entertainment Tent

A sound unlike any other. Raised on soul and Motown classics, as well as jazz standards, Moon has a soul older than herself.

12.30pm – Fish Skills with Tush and Pat, Classroom on the Coast

Perfect for Hastings Fish fans! Local legends Tush and Pat Hamilton will be showcasing all their fish cutting skills with some of the local catch and dressing salmon so you can feel confident about how to prepare it. All with wristbands tickets are welcome but places are limited on a first come first served basis.

1pm – CJ Jackson cooking demo, Classroom on the Coast

Hastings' Fish Ambassador will be cooking up some tasty dishes showcasing local fish and fishmongers. All with wristbands tickets are welcome but places are limited on a first come first served basis.

1.30pm to 2.30pm – The Right Time, Entertainment Tent

Soul music, both old and new, with mass helpings of funk, blues and many other influences.

2pm – Stories with Ed Boxall, Stade Hall

Join Ed, a local children's writer, illustrator and performer for a joyous, interactive mix of songs, stories and new poems, including performances of his book 'Carried Away with the Carnival'. Ed will also be bringing his box of instruments for a mega music jam! Edboxall.co.uk

2.30pm – Fish Skills with Tush and Pat, Classroom on the Coast

Repeat of 12:30pm session.

3pm – CJ Jackson cooking demo, Classroom on the Coast

Repeat of 1pm session.

3pm to 4pm – Big Blue, Entertainment Tent

Classic blues band playing their interpretation of blues greats from the likes of Stevie Ray Vaughan, Jimi Hendrix, Cream and Eric Clapton.

4pm – Stories with Ed Boxall, Stade Hall

Repeat show of 2pm show – see above.

4.30pm to 5.30pm – The Sam Calver Band, Entertainment Tent

Hastings local, Sam hits our stage after a long-awaited return with his infectious and incredibly soulful vocal prowess, poignant lyricism and mesmerising melodies.

6pm to 7.15pm – Buddha Triangle, Entertainment Tent

Their music ranges from reggae, jazz and funk to rock and rap. Their tunes are catchy and thought-provoking, telling stories of modern life with humour and social awareness.

Enjoy delicious fish dishes from local businesses and wines from local vineyards, along with a range of the best produce the area has to offer. Fantastic locally made beers, ciders, meat and vegetarian dishes will also be available as well as sweet treats and refreshments. There's also cooking and fish demos, story-telling, clowning plus arts and crafts for the children during the weekend. There's things for the whole family to enjoy.

As well as dozens of traders, there will be a weekend full of live music and entertainment in the music tent on the beach.

Weekend Wristbands cost £4 in advance from the Hastings Visitor Information Centre at Station Plaza, or £5 on the gate. Under 18s go free. Tickets for the Sunday Jazz Breakfast with Liane Carroll sold separately.

Please note that because the event can get very busy, and there are lots of young children and very hot cooking equipment around, only assist dogs are allowed into the site.

For further updates, please visit the website: visit1066country.com/whatson or check out Hastings Borough Council's Facebook event page.

Sunday 18 September

11am to 6pm on the Stade. Music until 6pm on the beach.

10am (doors open at 9am) Jazz Breakfast – Liane Carroll and Friends, Entertainment Tent

Liane returns for another Jazz Breakfast in her hometown of Hastings. If you haven't experienced this talented performer in person you absolutely should! She always delivers, vocally and musically with a personality and performance that will brighten up your Sunday morning - even if it's raining.

Tickets are available from the Visitor Information Centre, Station Plaza, Hastings. Price includes a two hour concert, continental breakfast from Judges Bakery and wristband for weekend entry to the Seafood and Wine Festival. Adults £20, Children £10.

11am to 5.30pm – Kids Stuff, Stade Hall

All things arts and crafts for the little ones to enjoy, including face painting! Must be accompanied by a wristband wearing adult.

12.30pm – Fish Skills with Tush and Pat, Classroom on the Coast

Perfect for Hastings Fish fans! Local legends Tush and Pat Hamilton will be showcasing all their fish cutting skills with some of the local catch and dressing salmon so you can feel confident about how to prepare it. All with wristbands tickets are welcome but places are limited on a first come first served basis.

1pm – CJ Jackson cooking demo, Classroom on the Coast

Hastings Fish Ambassador will be cooking up some tasty dishes showcasing local fish and fishmongers. All with wristbands tickets are welcome but places are limited on a first come first served basis.

12.30pm to 1.15pm – Gumbo, Entertainment Tent

Celebrating New Orleans music by playing a piece of musical history, from early jazz to gospel, creole to Latin and from blues to RnB, soul and funk.

1.45pm to 2.45pm – The Interceptuers, Entertainment Tent

Winners of the Best Live Act the Salisbury Music Awards. They play high-energy original music, slightly ska(ish) tunes you can dance your socks off to!

2.30pm – Fish Skills with Tush and Pat, Classroom on the Coast

Repeat of 12:30pm session.

3pm – CJ Jackson cooking demo, Classroom on the Coast

Repeat of 1pm session.

3.15pm to 4.30pm – The Blues Brothers – Soul Sisters Show, Entertainment tent

Authentic 60s soul and Tamla Motown, this big 12 piece Soul Band plays 75 minutes of non-stop classics featured in both iconic Blues Brothers films.

5pm to 6pm – SKA-PER, Entertainment Tent

Eight piece collective with a shared love and enthusiasm for ska and two tone sounds and rhythms. A great party band to finish this year's Seafood and Wine Festival!

VISIT1066COUNTRY.COM/WHATSON

